

IMMEDIATE PAST CHAIRMAN

Roger M. Moak

Arbitrator • Umpire • Mediator

With over 30 years of experience as an attorney—almost 20 as an insurance industry general counsel—Roger Moak is now offering his services to the industry as an ARIAS•U.S. certified arbitrator.

A graduate of Cornell University and Georgetown University Law Center, he began his legal career with Speiser, Shumate, Geoghan, Krause, Rheingold & Madole in Washington, D.C. In the firm's New York office, he handled a wide variety of litigation and corporate matters and became a member of Speiser & Krause, P.C.

He left the law firm in 1980 to head the Legal Department of Insurance Services Office (ISO). He was Senior Vice President and General Counsel of ISO until 1991.

Mr. Moak became Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary of The Home Insurance Companies, including U.S. International Reinsurance Company, after they were acquired by Trygg-Hansa in 1991. He also served for a year as The Home's chief corporate claims officer while still serving as general counsel.

He remained general counsel of The Home when he became Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary of Risk Enterprise Management Limited (REM), a member of Zurich Financial Services, following the Trygg-Hansa/Zurich transaction of 1995. For REM, he concentrated on The Home's eight-year voluntary run-off under regulatory supervision and helped REM develop into a major TPA. He left REM in 2004 and began his arbitration practice. He has already had over 30 arbitrator or umpire appointments, and he is on the ARIAS•U.S. Umpire List and the CPR Panel of Distinguished Neutrals.

Mr. Moak is admitted to practice law in New York, in the District of Columbia, and before many U.S. Courts, including the Supreme Court. He was appointed to six terms on the Committee on Insurance Law of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, including one term, from 1996 to 1999, as Chairman. He was elected to six terms as President of The Insurance Federation of New York, Inc. (IFNY) and three terms as Chairman of its Board of Directors.
